Your 2021-2022 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding Federal Student Aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, we will compare your FAFSA with the information on this institutional verification document and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You must complete and sign this institutional verification document, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents to us. We may ask for additional information. Should additional space be required for any of the below fields, a separate sheet may be attached to complete the data. In addition, you will need to sign and date each additional sheet. If you have questions about verification, contact us as soon as possible so that your financial aid will not be delayed.

A. STUDENT'S FAMILY INFORMATION

List below the people in the student's household. Include: Yourself; your spouse if married; children whom you and/or your spouse will provide more than half of the support for from July 1, 2021 through June 30, 2022, even if a child does not live with the student. Include other people if they now live with you and you provide more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2022. Include the name of the college for any household member who will be enrolled at least half-time in a degree, diploma, or certificate program at an eligible postsecondary educational institution any time between July 1, 2021, and June 30, 2022.
